Centred on the life and career of education activist Reginald 'Bubbles' Brown, it follows his work to reform Jamaica's inner-city schools. Imitation Game: The Man Who Stole Tony's Brain IMDb9.1/ 94 min [Blu-ray] Plot New York, 1955. Tony and Nora are happily married. They love each other, have a beautiful daughter, and live in an elegantly decorated house. Upon entering their house, however, it becomes apparent that something is very wrong. There are strange noises in the house, and odd people milling around. Tony explains that there is a man in their house, and that he has been living there for over a year. But, everything is fine and normal, and everything is about to come to an end when Tony convinces his wife to show him something. He then uses a gun to "disappear" this man into a machine and leaves him to die. A few months later, Tony and Nora discover that the man in their house is no longer dead.SPECIALS CARPE YA Celebrate National Carrot Day, August 11th with our selection of fresh, locally grown carrots from Stonehedge Farm.
