... In the evenings, when they were off duty and all other duties had been given over to others, she and Nika, like everyone else, would go to the seashore. Sometimes they had no energy to speak, and they were silent for a long time, leaning on the warm sand, exposing it to the gentle rays. Sometimes, Nika could not help but talk about her business, trying not to go into details. She did not need to be rebuked for her excessive curiosity about her future husband!
